KITCHENS BEDROOMS & BATHROOMS

GO GREEN

Save up to 50% on water and energy with the four-strong Satinjet Awatea range from Deva. The innovation behind the Satinjet lies in twin jets delivering 3000 droplets of fine water per second with two function settings – gentle massage and full spray – operating interchangeably at the touch of a button. Shown is the Satinjet Awatea Hi Rise, priced £199.

GERMAN GEOMETRY

German designer Peter Maly has brought his love of elementary geometric shapes to Cemia, the new range at Ligne Roset. Merging the minimalism of the 1990s with organic forms of the 1960s, the 14-piece range will bring a fresh, contemporary edge to bedroom and living spaces, working together as a cohesive collection or as one-off, standalone pieces. Making a play for the limelight is the sleek Cemia bed, distinguished by simple, fluid lines, an oversized headboard and complementary glossy white lacquered bedside tables. Prices for the bed start at £1583.
